

Court Case History – Combined Report

Case 1: Arjun Mehta vs Orion Technologies Pvt. Ltd. (CS(OS) 120/2023)

This case was filed on 15th March 2023 by Mr. Arjun Mehta against Orion Technologies Pvt. Ltd. in the Delhi High Court. The plaintiff accused the defendant of breaching a software development contract, wherein specific agreed features and functionalities were not delivered, leading to significant financial loss. Upon preliminary hearing, the court was convinced of the merit of the claim and granted an interim injunction, preventing the defendant from using or distributing any part of the source code allegedly co-developed. The next hearing is scheduled for 12th September 2025, where final arguments will be presented. The case highlights the importance of upholding contractual obligations in the software industry.

Case 2: Nisha Rao vs State of Delhi (WP(C) 541/2024)

Filed on 11th January 2024, this writ petition involves Ms. Nisha Rao challenging the State of Delhi's housing allocation policy. She claims the policy unfairly discriminates against economically weaker sections despite constitutional provisions to ensure equality. The court reviewed initial documents and found grounds to further examine administrative irregularities in the housing allotment scheme. The petition seeks re-evaluation of the criteria and a stay on current implementation until a fair hearing is concluded. The next hearing is set for 19th August 2025. This case underscores the judicial review of public policy in democratic governance.

Case 3: Manoj Kumar vs Life Insurance Corp. (FAO 88/2022)

This First Appeal was initiated by Mr. Manoj Kumar on 20th November 2022 after his insurance claim was rejected by LIC, citing non-disclosure of a previous medical condition. The original consumer forum ruled in favor of LIC, but Mr. Kumar contends that the condition was not relevant to the type of policy purchased and was not asked during the sign-up process. The High Court reviewed the matter and paused any further policy-based rejections until the appeal concludes. The matter will resume on 3rd October 2025. The case emphasizes transparency and fair dealing in the insurance sector.
